THE INSTITUTE OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT STUDIES OPENS ADMISSIONS FOR 2020/2021 MASTER'S DEGREE PROGRAMMES

The Institute of Local Government Studies (ILGS) has opened admissions for its flagship Master's Degree Programmes for the 2020/2021 academic year.

The four (4) programmes being mounted by the Institute are all relevant for a professional career development in local governance practice. These are:

- MSc. Environmental Science, Policy and Management
- MSc. Local Economic Development
- MSc. Public Financial Management
- M.A. Local Governance and Management

As you are aware, the Local Government Service is a collaborator and key stakeholder of ILGS. The Institute is accredited by the National Accreditation Board (NAB) and affiliated to the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology (KNUST) with standing relationship with other reputable international institutions of higher learning.

The Office of the Head of the Local Government Service (OHLGS) is by this correspondence recommending and encouraging prospective staff of the Service who want to develop their career in local governance to visit the website of the Institute (www.ilgs-edu.org) for additional information and possible enrolment.

For further enquiries, please call Ivy on 0244443172 or Josephine on 0262135480.

Kindly bring this to the attention of all staff.

Counting on your co-operation on this matter.
